

ENTERTAINMENT

At West Brook School Tomorrow Night.

A school entertainment will be given Wednesday night, Nov. 26, at West Brook school, five miles south of town, on the Palmyra pike. The program consists of vocal and instrumental music, reading and tableaux. Those assisting are: Miss Anna Adams, pianist, Prof. and Mrs. Foster, Misses Edna Cayce, Virginia Purley, Bessie Mae Roper, Katharine Scarry and Virginia Schmidt, and Giebel Adams.

The ladies are invited to bring boxes which will be sold after performance.

Admission 15 cents, children 10c. Proceeds to be used for the benefit of the school.

BONNIE BOYD, Teacher.

Bat the Enemy of Mosquitoes.

Recent investigations indicate that the greater part of the diet of the bat consists of mosquitoes, and advantage is being taken of this fact in ridding communities in Texas and other southern states of the mosquito pest.

State of Ohio, city of Toledo, Lucas County, Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

HOME WEDDING

Miss Susan Moss and Mr. R. B. Butler Married Yesterday Morning.

The relatives and close friends of Miss Susan Anderson Moss and Mr. R. B. Butler witnessed their marriage yesterday morning at 8:30 at the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. Robt. M. Anderson, 212 East Sixth street. Rev. C. M. Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated, following the ceremony and after receiving congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Butler were driven to the L. & N. station and took the Dixie Flyer for Nashville, where they will remain for a few days. After they return they will board with Mrs. Geo. T. Herndon, 507 South Virginia street.

The bride is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Moss. She is a pianist of ability and a young lady of artistic tastes. The groom was for three years connected with military department of the State and was keeper of the arsenal at Frankfort prior to coming here and entering the service of the Kentucky Public Service Company, with which he now holds a responsible position.

New City Map.

Walter & Brodie have just completed the newest and most up-to-date map of the city of Hopkinsville ever made. The city ordered three of the maps and copies will be supplied to any one wanting them by Messrs. Walter & Brodie. The map is about 48 by 6 inches and contains all the new additions to the city and changes of the boundary are given where there have been recent annexations. The streets are all correctly shown for the first time and many of the unnamed streets have been given suitable names. It may be regarded as the official map.

Cleaned Up His City.

Resenting the assertion that Sydney, Australia, was the dirtiest town in the southern hemisphere, the lord mayor organized a special force of a hundred police for the preservation of good order, cleanliness and neatness.

Will Stop Claim Shaving.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 21—State Treasurer Thomas Rhea today announced that he had secured $148,053.34 which he will use to pay the Confederate pensions that became due Nov. 5. The reason why he has taken this step is because it has been reported to him that the claim shavers have been reaping a harvest off of the Confederate pensions and he will put a stop to it.

Turkeys Missing.

Mrs. Dock Wadlington, of Triggs county, near Julien, lost 19 turkeys in one flock last week. They failed to come up at night and have never been heard from since.

Business Farmers like NEW IDEA Spreaders

Farming is fast becoming a business. Good farmers appreciate the value of good tools and machinery. That machine, which does the best work in the shortest time at the smallest expense is the business farmer's choice.

New Idea Spreaders will thoroughly pulverize and spread more of any kind of manure in less time than any other machine. They will spread manure wider, more evenly and at the least cost of operation.

Pulverizes and Spreads a Load in Three Minutes

Why New Idea Spreaders Are Best

They are of simplest construction, which assures a durability not found in more complicated machines. They have a wide range of feeds, operated by the simplest of all feeding mechanisms. The Gearless drive is the best way in which power is transmitted direct without the wear on gears. It saves horses, machine and men's temper. The New Idea Spreader is the only machine with a pulverizing cylinder, besides a patented distributor. Learn all about this fine spreader by examining it at

Lost Left Hand.

Friday, while feeding a corn shredder belonging to L. B. Apple, Sam Stewart, colored, got his left hand in the machine and it was so badly mashed that it had to be cut off. Mr. John Adams brought Stewart to town in his automobile. Drs. Jackson and Keith gave the man proper attendance.

C. P. Revival.

Rev. W. T. Logan arrived Saturday to assist the pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church in the revival that began Sunday. These meetings will be held daily, at 10 o'clock a. m., 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. Prof. J. W. Henderson, of Chicago, will conduct the music.

Coming Home Soon.

Miss Marguerite Lawson, who went to Clarksville a few months ago to reside at the piano at the new Lillian theatre, will shortly return to Hopkinsville. Last Saturday she was one of the guests at St. Cecilia College, Nashville, as were a large number of other graduates of St. Cecilia. She was down on the program for a piano solo and her selection was "Bubbling Spring," which she played with her usual skill and effect. After the completion of the program a banquet was given to the guests. Miss Lawson may remain at St. Cecilia until after Thanksgiving day.
